Program Notes
Sinfonia Song was commissioned for the 2006 West Des Moines Fifth Grade Festival Orchestra. Classic style harmonic progressions are used with a modern flare. Every section of the orchestra remains active and plays melodic figures. The rhythmic drive continues throughout the piece acting as a metronome for the melody. Students will find this piece challenging, yet enjoyable to play.

About the Composer
Kirt N. Mosier presently teaches for the Lee's Summit (Missouri) R-7 School District, where he is the director of orchestras at Lee's Summit High School and at Pleasant Lea Junior High School. Prior to his teaching position with the R-7 school district, Mr. Mosier taught nine years in the Raytown C-2 School District. He was director of orchestras at Raytown South High School and at Raytown South Middle School. Mr. Mosier has been an adjunct professor for Baker University, where he taught music history. Mr. Mosier is currently an adjunct professor for the University of Missouri-Kansas City, where he teaches arranging for music education and masters degree candidates. Mr. Mosier holds a Bachelor of Music Education and Masters of Music in composition degree from the University of Missouri-Kansas City.

During his teaching career, Mr. Mosier's groups have performed throughout the United States and consistently received the highest honor ratings. In 1993, his orchestra won the outstanding performing group at a national festival in San Antonio. During his tenure at Raytown South High School, the orchestra's string section grew from 13 to 105 members.

Mr. Mosier is an active clinician and adjudicator throughout the midwest and south regions of the U.S. As a composer, he has had works featured at the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic. In 1993, Mr. Mosier's piece, Baltic Dance, won the National School Orchestra Association Composition Contest. That same year, he was commissioned by the Missouri chapter of ASTA to write the All-State Orchestra piece, Revelation.

Mr. Mosier has been Orchestra Vice President for the Kansas City Metro District No. 3 of the Missouri Music Educators Association and the Missouri state representative for the National School Orchestra Association. In 1995, he was the Missouri state coordinator for the National High School Honors Orchestra, which performed at the 1996 MENC convention.

Mr. Mosier has several published works for orchestra and wrote the 2004 commissioned work for the Missouri All-State Orchestra.
